From: Robert Richardson, City Manager
Prepared by: Anne M. Cooley, Deputy/Assistant City Clerk
Date: August 10, 2009
Subject: Appointment to the Historic Design Review Commission Appointment

The Issue

Shall the Council make appointments to the Historic Design Review Commission?

Conclusion and Recommendation

By RESOLUTION appoint a representative from the Historical Society and a representative from the Downtown Business District to the Historic Design Review Commission with terms to expire July 31, 2013.

Background

Presently the HDRC has two vacancies: (1) a Historical Society representative and (2) a real property owner or business owner from the Downtown Historic District. Two applications have been received for the Historical Society representative and one application has been received for the Downtown Historic District representative.

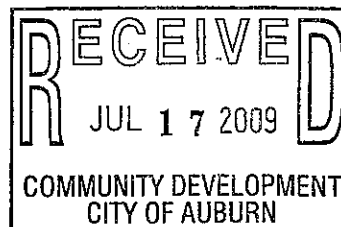

Sandra Elder served for several years on the Commission as the Historical Society representative and has recently submitted her resignation. The term of Liz Briggs, who has served as a representative from the Downtown Historic District, has expired. Therefore, an appointment needs to be made for a Historical Society representative and a Downtown Historic District representative. Applications have been received from Loreley Hodkin and Carmel Barry-Schweyer for the Historical Society representative. An application for re-appointment has been received from Liz Briggs for the Downtown Historic District representative.

Alternatives Available to Council

- A. Make the appointments;
- B. Direct Staff to re-advertise and seek additional applicants;
- C. Take no action.

Fiscal Impact

None

Re: Carmel Barry-Schweyer

Dear Anne

The Placer County Historical Society board of directors respectfully request that the Auburn City Council designate Carmel Barry-Schweyer as the historical representative on the City Historic Design Review Commission. The unanimous endorsement action was taken at the Society's board meeting on July 2 at City Hall. She said she would be happy to serve and I believe has submitted an application form.

Carmel recently retired as the curator of Placer County Archives and when it comes to local history and preservation is most knowledgeable and would be a worthy successor to Sandra Elder who said she is resigning. I think it would be fitting for the City Council to also honor Mrs. Elder for her many years of service.

If you need any additional information please contact me.

Cordially,

Michael Otten, president
